

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

REFERENCE

We hired RS Consult BG to create the website for GreenHero.com – a crowdfunding platform for environmental projects. They worked professionally, with desire and motivation – we received more than we expected. During the work process, the milestones and timetable were achieved and the project launched on time. The website is comfortable to use, aesthetic and completely identical to our expectations for a modern website with its own appearance and impact. Thank you, RS Consult BG!
